Berberis vulgaris
Barberry

TYPES OF PLANTING
Tree types: woodland planting stock, solitary shrubs │ Other types of planting: undergrowth, ground cover

USE
Location: park, central reservation, roof garden, large garden, small garden, traffic areas, industrial zones, coastal area │ Pavement: none │ Planting concepts: food forest, Eco planting

CHARACTERISTICS
Crown shape: vase-shaped │ Crown structure: dense │ Height: 1 - 3 m │ Width: 1 - 3 m │ Winter hardiness zone: 4A - 9A

ASPECTS
Wind: tolerant to wind │ Soil: loess, sabulous clay, sand, loamy soil │ Nutrient level: moderately rich in nutrients, rich in nutrients │ Soil moisture level: dry │ Light requirements: sun, partial shade │ pH range: acidic, neutral │ Host plant/forage plant: bees, nectar value 5, pollen value 5 │ Extreme environments: tolerates air pollution

PLANTKENMERKEN
Flowers: raceme, striking │ Flower colour: yellow │ Flowering period: May - May │ Leaf colour: green │ Leaves: deciduous, obovate, leaf thorns, dentate │ Autumn colour: red │ Fruits: small, frosty, berry │ Fruit colour: red │ Twig colour: grey-brown │ Twigs: thorned

EBBEN
trees since 1862

TreeEbb