Quercus petraea 'Mespilifolia'
Mespilifolia sessile Oak

TYPES OF PLANTING
Tree types: standard trees

USE
Location: park, large garden, traffic areas, industrial zones, countryside, windbreak | Pavement: none | Planting concepts: Prairie planting

CHARACTERISTICS
Crown shape: rounded, heart-shaped | Crown structure: dense | Height: 15 - 25 m | Width: 5 - 10 m | Winter hardiness zone: 5A - 10B

ASPECTS
Wind: tolerant to wind | Soil: loess, sabulous clay, light clay, sand, loamy soil | Nutrient level: moderately rich in nutrients, rich in nutrients | Soil moisture level: moist | Light requirements: sun, partial shade | pH range: acidic, neutral | Host plant/forage plant: bees, butterflies, birds, small mammals | Extreme environments: tolerant to dryness, tolerates air pollution

PLANTKENMERKEN